

MANSFIELD HISTORICAL SOCIETY REPRODUCTION USE POLICY

Reproductions from the Mansfield Historical Society Photograph Archive, the Edith Mason Library Collection and of objects from the Museum collection are available for purchase for private and/or commercial use as well as for publication purposes. All sales are final. Prices are subject to change.

Permission to reproduce materials in for-profit or not-for-profit publications or to use reproductions for any commercial purpose must be obtained in writing. Reproductions are made available for one-time use for the purpose stated in the Reproduction Request Form. Reproductions may not be further copied or made available to another researcher without prior permission. Each researcher must assume full responsibility for any legal questions that may arise as a result of use of the reproductions. A free copy of all publications is to be presented to the Library as soon as the work is published. Credit shall be given to the Mansfield Historical Society.

Warning Concerning Copyright Restrictions

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be “used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research.” If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use,” that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgement, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.
